XI. Congregational Discernment

The following questions are beneficial to a process of discernment that helps you look at yourself and also provide important information to your candidates. It is our hope that you'll spend significant time in reflecting on these ten questions prior to your providing the answers on this form. You may likely want to involve discussion of them in various congregational venues to provide the Search Committee with a breadth of input. Discuss with your Regional Minister how this might be accomplished. We are encouraging answers on the Congregational Profile that are both succinct and well thought through.

1. What has God uniquely called you to be and do as a congregation (both now, and looking to the future)?

2. Describe the processes you used to hear God's unique call for your congregation.

3. Describe the Spiritual Disciplines that are regularly practiced throughout this congregation.

4. Describe your sense of God's covenantal call to be a part of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) and broader ecumenical/inter-faith ministries.

5. In what ways have members of the congregation been engaged in the Search and Call discernment process?

6. Describe the ways God has equipped the congregation for your particular ministerial context? (Including opportunities for ministry; particular talents represented by members of the congregation; financial and other resources you have; the traditions you have manifested over the years.)

7. Describe the congregation's strengths and growing edges.

XV. Discerning Areas of Greatest Need for Ministerial Leadership

The list below is based on the requirements found in Theological Foundations and Policies and Criteria for the Ordering of Ministry of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). It is used for describing a minister’s areas of skill and expertise (which you will observe on the Ministerial Profiles you receive). Part of the Search & Call process is discerning a good match between the skills of the pastor and the needs of the congregation. In light of where growth is desired and God is calling you, rank 7 skill areas (of the 16 categories below) where you especially seek strengths in your next minister, up to 3 of which can be designated at level 5 in “strength.”
