(Please note, this friend must still fully register for CYF Conference, and must attend for you to receive your shirt.)

EXPECTATIONS FOR ALL PARTICIPANTS

God loves and cherishes each of us, therefore, we will seek to do nothing but love and cherish each other while at Camp Christian. Consequently, insults, peer pressure, name-calling, ethnic/ racial/ sexual jokes, fighting, sexual abuse, harassment, stealing, inappropriate language, inappropriate public or private displays of affection, will NOT be tolerated. Our bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit, therefore, we will not mutilate them, use illegal drugs, alcohol or tobacco... nor will we misuse/abuse prescription drugs. Ignoring these expectations will result in your being sent home for the safety of the camp community. Life is precious, so we will do nothing to jeopardize our own safety, or that of others. We will, further, respect the order created for our safety by Camp Christian: NO swimming in the lake, NO leaving camp boundaries, NO use of cars during camp, NO hover boards, NO weapons or intentional damage of camp property, NO graffiti and NO littering. Our goal is to build a community that as perfectly as possible reflects the realm of God on earth. Therefore, we will not use distracting electronic devices or wear inappropriate attire while at Camp Christian, and will not participate in behavior that is disrespectful of the entire community.

- Mp3 players may be used with headphones for music only in beds ONLY between lights out and wake-up bell. Music must be appropriate. No use during free time. Cell phones must be left in the Camp Office for the week.
- Bathing suits can be 2-piece but should be modest and worn only at the pool. Appropriate cover should be worn to and from the pool. (A towel is not appropriate cover.)
- Clothing should be modest, not "skimpy," too revealing or too suggestive. Shirts should cover all cleavage and be long enough to cover your stomach. Underwear is to be under what you wear not sticking out the top.

Do not be late for activities, use any electronic devices, enter the space of others uninvited or the personal space of anyone anytime, or entertain visitors at camp during the week. Clothing promoting sex, drugs, tobacco or alcohol are considered inappropriate. Because we are children of God, and are here to learn about and worship God, we honor our times of worship and prayer, and respect the quiet times of others, such as Vespers, Morning Watch, Taps and Consecration.

Bullying: Any camper found to be harassing, making fun of, or intimidating another camper is subject to disciplinary actions and may be sent home.

I have read, understand, and will abide by these expectations:

This section is to be filled out by the Parent(s)/Guardian(s) of the CYF Conferee

It is our objective and firm commitment to treat each camper as an individual. Therefore, any information you could share with us concerning your son or daughter would be appreciated and helpful. Include comments like these: shy or outgoing, works best alone or with a group, talkative or reflective, etc. Please do not limit your comments to these categories, but in your own words, help us to provide your child a healthy, growing, Christian camp experience.

Who is picking up the registered young person when Camp is over on Saturday? Please print clearly.
