This gathering will address:

- ◆ Exploring the Three-fold focus of Gratitude, Prayer and Lived Faith
- ◆ Understanding your “why”
- ◆ Understanding the role of the interim in changing the culture of generosity through the development of best practices for improving financial and spiritual health
- ◆ What is your terrain? The changing landscape of philanthropy
- ◆ Assessing financial health in your context

Rev. David Long-Higgins serves as the Transitional Conference Minister of Heartland Conference United Church of Christ. In that role, Dave has been called to facilitate a time of discernment toward a more collaborative expression of our shared covenant between congregations, associations, institutions of higher education and health, human service ministries and more!

Dave is a graduate of Heidelberg University with a Bachelor of Arts in psychology and music. His Master of Divinity was earned at United Theological Seminary of the Twin Cities in New Brighton, Minnesota. He is also a graduate of the Wellstreams Spiritual Direction Training Program of the Spirituality Network of Columbus. Prior to his current ministry, along with his wife Beth, also an ordained minister of the UCC, Dave has served Bethany UCC, Louisville, Kentucky, and David's UCC, Canal Winchester, Ohio. Dave and Beth have two adult children, Andrew and Hannah.

When not on the ministry trail Dave enjoys movies, photography, playing violin and guitar, bicycling and travel.
